About the Seminar

Theme-

Indian Knowledge System: A Multidisciplinary Approach in Higher Education

The Indian Knowledge System comprising of Jnan, Bijnan and Jivan Darshana have evolved out of experience, observation, experimentation and rigorous analysis since time immemorial. This tradition of validating and putting into practice the acquired knowledge can benefit our education, arts, administration, law and justice, health, manufacturing and commerce to a large extent even today. Hence, a national seminar on the Indian Knowledge Systems is very relevant and the need of the hour. Indian Knowledge Systems underlines the moral values, ethics and principles for leading a righteous life in the present materialistic world. It is important to understand and deeply comprehend the Indian Knowledge Systems as it demonstrates the Indian way of sustainable life. A need has been felt that a seminar on the Indian Knowledge Systems is required for making an elaborate discussion on the associated issues of IKS.
