The guest lecture on "Indian Knowledge System – An Overview" provided students with valuable insights into India's rich intellectual heritage and its relevance today. Through the lecture, students learned about the historical contributions of Indian scholars in fields such as astrology, healthcare, mathematics, linguistics, and public administration. The resource person, Dr. Saurabh Pran Sharma, effectively linked these contributions to the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, helping students understand how traditional knowledge can complement modern education. The session also emphasized the importance of record-keeping and ethical practices in commerce, encouraging students to adopt these values in their studies and future careers. Overall, the program helped students appreciate the interdisciplinary nature of the Indian Knowledge System and its ongoing significance in contemporary education and professional fields.
