

Report on Constitution Day Celebration

K. C. Das Commerce College

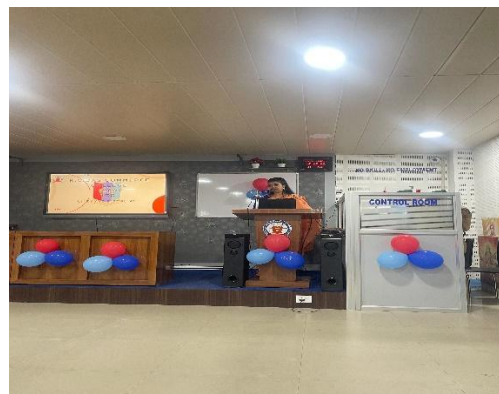

Date: 26/11/2024

On Constitution Day, the NSS Unit of K. C. Das Commerce College organized a significant celebration to honour the adoption of the Constitution of India. The event was graced by students from various colleges, making it a vibrant inter-college gathering. The highlight of the day was an engaging quiz competition, which tested participants' knowledge about the Constitution and its provisions.

The Principal, Dr. Hrishikesh Baruah of K. C. Das Commerce College, who adorned the occasion with his presence, addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of the Indian Constitution in ensuring justice, equality, and democracy. He underscored the relevance of understanding our Constitution and the values enshrined in it, which form the foundation of the nation's legal and social framework.

The celebration also included the recitation of the Preamble to the Constitution, a symbolic gesture to reaffirm the commitment to the principles of justice, liberty, and fraternity. The students participated enthusiastically, displaying a deep sense of respect for the Constitution and its significance in shaping the nation.

Overall, the event was a memorable one, fostering a spirit of unity and patriotism among the students, while promoting awareness about the Constitution and its vital role in our in our lives.
