10. Outcome of the Event: The programme “Mayurpankhi Rahanbor” successfully commemorated the birth centenary of Bhupen Hazarika, rekindling collective memory and appreciation for his immense contributions to the cultural and musical heritage of Assam and India. Faculty members and students came together to celebrate his legacy through songs and recitations, fostering a sense of unity, pride, and cultural consciousness within the institution. The dignified tribute, including the ceremonial lamp lighting and heartfelt speeches by college authorities, created a reflective atmosphere, highlighting Hazarika’s timeless relevance.

The student-centric Bhupen Hazarika Songs Competition saw enthusiastic participation, showcasing young talents and encouraging them to connect with Assamese musical traditions. The winners Ms. Neha Boro, Ms. Tisha Das, and Ms. Dikshita Das were duly recognized, adding a spirit of achievement to the event.

The seamless coordination by Dr. Swapna Smriti Mahanta ensured that the programme maintained its cultural richness and institutional decorum. Overall, the event deepened students’ understanding of Assamese heritage, encouraged artistic engagement, and strengthened the cultural fabric of the college community.
