The Faculty Interaction Programme, held on April 18, 2022, at Dhemaji Commerce College, yielded positive outcomes. The interaction facilitated knowledge sharing and academic collaboration between faculty members of K.C. Das Commerce College and Dhemaji Commerce College. Students benefited from the expertise and experiences of faculty members from both institutions, gaining insights into industry practices and academic expectations.

A joint study on the problems and prospects of handloom and handicraft industries in Assam, focusing on Kangkan Emporium, was conceptualized. Students from both colleges will participate in the study, developing research skills and understanding the practical aspects of the industry. The study aims to provide valuable insights into the challenges and opportunities faced by handloom and handicraft industries in Assam.

The programme laid the groundwork for future collaborations, including joint research projects, faculty exchanges, and student development initiatives. The event marked a significant step towards strengthening academic ties between the two institutions, promoting mutual growth and development.
