10. Outcome of the Event (Please describe within 200 words): The guest lecture on the topic "Hindi: Manan, Manthan, aur Mantavya – Vartman ki Dasha aur Disha ke Paripekshya Mein", organized by the Department of Hindi, proved to be a thought-provoking and insightful academic event. The programme successfully met its objective of engaging students and faculty in a meaningful discourse about the status and future of Hindi. Dr. Hrishikesh Baruah, the Principal, highlighted the significance of the Hindi language in both national and global contexts, stressing the importance of linguistic pride and preservation. The keynote speaker, Dr. Mohan Koirala, offered a comprehensive and scholarly analysis of Hindi's contemporary landscape, touching upon its literary, educational, and cross-cultural dimensions. He emphasized the expanding scope of Hindi in media, technology, and international platforms, while also cautioning about the challenges it faces in a multilingual and digitized world. The lecture encouraged students to think critically about their role in sustaining and promoting Hindi in modern times. Faculty members appreciated the speaker's insights and the interactive nature of the session. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Assistant Professor Chinmayi Das, marking the end of a successful academic engagement that left the audience enriched and inspired.
