ARTHOSPHERE- The World of Economics

The Department of Economics proudly presents the new edition of Wall Magazine on 23rd April, 2025 prepared by students from BA/B.Sc (2nd, 4th, and 6th Sem). This edition showcases a diverse collection of articles, economic insights, and creative expressions that reflect the academic curiosity and enthusiasm of the students. One of the highlights of this magazine is an article about the ongoing trade fight (or tariff war) between China and the USA. This article explains how the two big countries are putting taxes on each other's goods and how that is affecting other countries, prices, and the global economy. Along with this, the magazine includes: Short notes on well-known economists like Adam Smith,

Keynes, and Amartya Sen, motivational quotes, economic facts and important ideas about the economy. This wall magazine is a result of great teamwork and effort by the students
